

Fundraiser

The Cleveland Youth Wind Symphony was founded in 1989 by Dr. Gary M. Ciepluch and Robert McAllister with the purpose of providing a musical venue for the most outstanding high school (grades 8-12) woodwind, brass, and percussion musicians throughout Northeast Ohio. The organization is sponsored by Case Western Reserve University and The Cleveland Institute of Music.

Help a music student go to

The Cleveland Youth Wind Symphony will be on tour in Australia during the first two weeks of June 2000. They have been invited by the Sydney Organizing Committee to participate in the pre-olympic festivities.
